Made Trip to Visit Battlefields in Normandy, Confers With Allied Leaders

GEN. EISENHOWER'S ADVANCE COMMAND POST, July 5—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower returned to his headquarters in England today, completing a five-day visit to his troops on the Normandy battlefields.

Besides numerous important conferences with Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley and other field officers, Eisenhower's tour was highlighted by two trips behind enemy lines.

The first, by road, took him just an enemy pocket of resistance during the new American drive on the western side of the Cherbourg peninsula.

The second, by air, was made in an adapted Mustang fighter plane flown by Maj. Gen. Elwood Quesada, head of the Ninth Air Force Fighter Command, who led a fighter sweep behind German lines with General Ike as passenger.

The whole purpose of the trip was to enable Eisenhower to study the front himself, starting with the British-Canadian eastern flank, and working over to the extreme western end of the American line.

Proud of Troops

Although he bent over backwards to avoid it—because he is an Allied commander—he couldn't hide justifiable pride in the American divisions that won the upper Cherbourg peninsula.

In rain, mud, sunshine, and dust the supreme commander careened wildly along roads in France through many scenes reminiscent of the last war. Most of the time he was in exposed positions within easy reach of enemy fire. Twice German artillery barrages were laid down at points he had just left.

Six times he crossed a bridge plainly marked "bridge under fire." He ignored a helmet and wore only a felt cap.

General "Ike" decorated 26 men of the American First division. He examined flying bomb launching sites.

After flying over in an unescorted transport Saturday, the general spent the rest of the day conferring with Bradley. They discussed plans and objectives of the present attack on the western side of the Cotentin peninsula, and the admirable protection of the British flank.

Eisenhower refused a chateau as trespassing on private French property, and slept in an improvised tent near Bradley's headquarters. A steel folding cot was his only extravagance. On it were

Thousands of Civilians Visit SAAF

'Open House' Brought $18,736 In War Bonds

Thousands of civilian visitors from Sedalia, Warrensburg and surrounding counties plus the entire military personnel of this Troop Carrier Field, during the annual "open house" celebration brought $18,736 in War Bonds as they witnessed a spectacular air show, inspected invasion equipment, and watched a musical review of all GI talent.

Highlighting the many thrills, a snatch pick-up of a glider by a Troop Carrier transport was a real first for civilian and for many of the military personnel. A glider was parked on the grass adjacent to the runway and from its nose was stretched a long nylon rope, which was fastened into a loop upheld by poles. Circling the field, a C-47 with a hook attachment zoomed down, snatched the waiting nylon loop and pulled the stationary glider into flight to the accompaniment of cheers from the breathless spectators.

Element after element of C-47 transports flew in formation as a salute to the thousands of relatives of servicemen who were on the field, buying bonds as a tribute to the deeds accomplished by the men of the TCC.

Parachuted As expectant quiet settled over the vast throng as S. Sgt. Frank Brown called attention to a circling C-47. Suddenly, three men came tumbling out in quick succession and as their white chutes blossomed out, they floated to earth as the crowd applauded their efforts.

The paratroopers who took part in the invasion of the Sedalia Army Air Field were: Charles V. Tilson, Jr., first lieutenant infantry; Staff Sgt. James

Democrats of Texas Want Their Rights

Jesse Jones has Comments on Split in Party

HOUSTON, Tex., July 5.—(P)—Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones today protested the Texas state Democratic convention's conditional binding of its electors, saying "Texas Democrats may be effectively prevented from casting their vote for the party nominee."

In a front page editorial in the Houston Chronicle, which he publishes, Jones declared "no political convention has the authority to deny a qualified voter the right to vote for any candidate he wishes to support."

He asserted that two resolutions passed by the Texas convention "place the Texas convention above the national convention."

The statement was Jones' first on the split in Texas Democratic ranks which saw a pro-Roosevelt group leave the regularly constituted Texas presidential convention in Austin May 23 and name its own electors and delegates to the national convention.

In referring to the state convention Jones said: "No one has contended that the convention lacked the support of the majority of its delegates. No one has even suggested that its proceedings were other than regular."

"The Democrats of Texas will insist upon their right to vote for the candidate of their choice in the November election," Jones said.

"All Democrats, including those who participated in the Texas convention and who will participate in the national convention, should cooperate in making this possible and simple."

Change Rules of Game

In his first public statement on the split in Texas' Democratic ranks, Jones said "It must now be obvious to the thousands of Texas voters who did not participate in the state convention, as well as to some who sat in the councils of

Warships 700 Miles Of Tokyo

Yank Marines, Soldiers Now Have Seven-eighths of Saipan Island

By The Associated Press

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, July 5.—(P)—Guns of American warships and rockets of carrier planes shattered Japanese bases on the Fourth of July 700 miles south of Tokyo.

Saipan, on the invasion route to Japan, is seven-eighths in the hands of still advancing Yank marines and soldiers.

Noemfoor, on the invasion route to the Philippines, is falling in a lightning operation to infantrymen, reinforced by paratroopers.

The latest task force thrust toward Nippon, aimed at the Volcano (Kazan) and Bonin islands, resulted in the sinking or beaching of three Jap destroyers, the sinking of two other ships and the destruction in sky battles of from 64 to 80 planes at a cost of nine American carrier aircraft.

These fast-breaking developments along a western Pacific war front of more than 2,000 miles—from the Bonins to Dutch New Guinea's Geelvinck bay—were reported in a series of communiques last night and today.

Tokyo radio added to the flaming action the unconfirmed report that carrier-based American planes raided Guam, south of Saipan, Monday.

Enemy Base Shelled

The enemy air base of Rota, between Guam and Saipan, was shelled by warships and bombed by carrier planes Sunday.

Holland Back To the Farm To Cut Oats

Relatives and Friends Sign his $15,000 Bond

Edgar Holland, who last Saturday was bound over to the action of the October term of criminal court on a first degree murder charge, was released at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon by Judge A. M. Harlan, justice of the peace, on a $15,000 bond. Holland is accused of the murder of his wife, Mollie Mattie Holland, identified as one of two women whose headless bodies were found floating in the Lake of the Ozarks last mid-April near the Glaze bridge.

Those who signed the bond were questioned by Prosecuting Attorney L. J. Harned before they were qualified to sign it. Those who signed the bond were: George E. Campbell and wife, Emma D. Campbell, who reside three miles east and a quarter mile north of Warrensburg; R. C. Seivew and wife, Lena, of near Houstonia; Scott Higgins and wife, Elizabeth Higgins, of LaMonte; Paul D. Hewitt and wife, Lyla B. Hewitt, who reside north of Knob Noster; Ross A. Watts of LaMonte and Holland's attorney, Fred F. Wesner, of Sedalia. It was indicated others have offered to sign and probably will within the next few days.

Sufficient Coverage

Judge Harlan said, however, that those who had signed the bond had qualified for the amount of the bond itself and gave that as his reason for releasing Holland.

"However," he said, "I shall be glad to accept additional bondsmen when they appear before me."

Holland, with a smile on his face, had but few remarks to make about being released on bond, but expressed his gratitude to those who signed. He said he was going to his farm as soon as he possibly could this afternoon. The cutting and binding of oats had started there today. "I expect to ride the binder this evening," he said, in discussing the chores to be done at the farm.

Holland has been held in the Pettis county jail since his return to Sedalia from Jefferson City on May 20, when he was arrested by Captain J. F. Shaw, after being detained in the Capital City from May 16 at which time he was questioned regarding the disappearance of his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Fairfax.

He is to appear before Judge Hoffman in the October term of criminal court on Monday, October 2, at which time the docket is set. Mr. Wesner, today, indicated that when the docket is set he would ask that the case be set for October and as early as possible.

Fewer Robots Over England

LONDON, July 5.—(P)—The volume of flying bomb attacks on southern England diminished last night as it had the night before and belief was expressed in some quarters today that Prime Minister Winston Churchill might hint at the reason in a statement to Commons tomorrow.

His statement on the latest Nazi menace originally was set for yesterday but was postponed. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the House Churchill could give a fuller statement Thursday.

Some members of Commons were understood to be ready to ask for a secret session if Churchill fails to give what they consider sufficient information. Both the public and Commons showed a certain impatience with the delay. Questions on the buzz-bomb situation accumulated for Churchill to answer.

There was a general feeling that some indication of the casualties—and perhaps a more specific definition of the area being attacked—might be given.

'We Shall Not Capitulate,' Says Hitler

But he Admits Strength of Nerve Is Necessary

LONDON, July 5.—(P)—Adolf Hitler, in a second speech within a week, declared that "We shall not capitulate before any difficulty," but acknowledged that "enormous courage and strength of nerves are necessary to stand up in these times." Berlin radio said today.

His speech, not delivered to the German people, was reported by Nazi broadcasts, which said it was made to a meeting of the Reich's war production leaders. The time was not disclosed, nor was the text broadcast, Berlin giving only what excerpts it wanted to reach foreign ears.

In the most recent address, delivered before the Reich's assembled war production leaders, Hitler struck the same note of "difficult situations that he did when speaking at the funeral of Gen. Eduard Dietl, Nazi commander in Finland. The German radio reported the Dietl address Saturday night without giving a time or place.

The two addresses broke a silence that had lasted since January 30 when he warned his people that they faced "the hardest task imaginable" during the current year.

A German Transocean broadcast recorded today by the Associated Press said Hitler received the production chiefs at his headquarters following a conference with Prof. Albert Speer, minister of munitions.

Expected Final Victory "This war cannot be judged on daily events," Hitler was quoted as saying. "In a battle of such historical extent a timely success or defeat does not make any difference. In this war of destiny for the German people everyone must fight and work for final victory."

"I know that enormous courage and strength of nerves are necessary to stand up in these times, but we shall not capitulate before any difficulty."

Speaking of "the courageous German soldiers" at the front he asked:

"Should the German leadership which has been lucky enough to say for four years that we have had only successes now say that we will fail?"

In answer he said:

"No. We will triumph this time and in the end win this war."

Makes Admissions Hitler asserted this war was not only one of soldiers "but also of engineers" and technicians. He said in this respect the Allies sometimes were as efficient and on rare occasions better than the Germans "but the German inventive spirit is on its way to regain the balance again."

The fuhrer asked Speer and his colleagues to convey to all German war workers his thanks for all they have done.

Speer announced an increase in armament production which he said had "been achieved in spite of enemy air attacks." The extent of the increase was not mentioned.

Fall of LaHaye Du Puits to U. S. First Army Imminent; Russians Advance on Wilno

Nazi Troops are Wholly Unable To Halt the Red Armies' Drives

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, July 5.—(P)—Two powerful Russian armies pounded on today toward Latvia and Lithuania, at a pace that may reach one or both of the Baltic republics in three or four days, menacing Daugavpils (Dvinsk) in Latvia and Wilno and Kaunas in the Soviet Lithuanian republic.

(Some 200 miles to the south, the German high command said, Nazi forces evacuated Kowel in old Poland. Moscow made no reference to Kowel or this central front.

(Berlin also declared the Russians had landed on five islands in Narva bay, between Estonia and Finland. The Russians crossed the Estonian frontier in an offensive last winter, pounding close to Narva on the bay.

(The DNB broadcast said counterattacking Finns regained two islands, Melansaari and Lammassaari, with heavy fighting continuing on a third, Teikassari. Light Finnish naval forces and German naval craft "successfully engaged" Soviet supply traffic, it added.)

Field dispatches declared the Germans appeared wholly unable to halt the Red army drives toward Latvia and Lithuania.

Nazis Disorganized

Russian planes hammered Wilno (Vilna) in softening up attacks. Beating back disorganized German resistance, Gen. Ivan Bagramian's First Baltic army pressed up the valley of the western Bvina toward Daugavpils (Dvinsk), key rail junction in southeastern Latvia, while to the south Gen. Ivan Cherniakhovsky's Third White Russian army made fast progress toward Wilno and Kaunas, capital of Lithuania.

(The Berlin radio acknowledged that "the Soviet advance is sweeping so fast a considerable number of German forces suddenly found themselves in the rear of the Soviet lines."

(By London estimates the advancing Red army troops were within 10 miles of the Latvian border and 15 or 17 miles from Lithuania.)

The railway connecting Berlin and Warsaw with Leningrad—a line which runs through Poland hitting Bialystok, Grodno and Wilno and connecting at Daugavpils with the line to Riga—lies immediately before the advancing Russian armies.

Important Railway This is one of Europe's best railways and is highly important to any German hopes of holding the Baltics or eastern Poland. Without it either task would be extremely difficult.

The sector where the Red army is exerting the most pressure toward the route is through the lake dotted country between Wilno and Daugavpils, the northern prong of this advance carrying westward toward the latter city from Polotsk which fell yesterday.

(It was believed in London that cutting of the railway would seriously affect the supply, maintenance and retreat of the German 16th and 18th armies in the north, possibly forcing them to retire to East Prussia or face entrapment.)

The Wilno-Kaunas sector is the key to the Baltics.

Wilno (sixth largest city in old Poland) stands astride the Warsaw-Leningrad railway, while Kaunas is an important junction on the route from East Prussia. The cities are 50 miles apart.

Lions Club Favors Expanding Runways

The Sedalia Lions club enjoyed its regular business session this noon at the St. Francis hotel ballroom. Adolph Glenn presided. Dr. F. I. Lawrence was introduced as a new member by Virgil Ragar.

The club declared itself unanimously in favor of immediate development of the runways at the new Sedalia airport. It was brought out that the city has the machinery to do this work and that very little manpower need be expended to put the airport in excellent shape for landing almost any size aircraft.

An elaborate welcome has been prepared for the French general who is coming for a series of talks with President Roosevelt. How much substantial accomplishment they will be able to wring out of the formalities remains a question.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 5.—(P)—U. S. Flying Fortresses which flew from England to Russia on June 21 and then to Italy, returned to England today, completing a 7,000-mile bombing trip. They hit railroad yards in France on the Italy to Britain leg of their trip.

STOCKHOLM, July 5.—(P)—Russian troops have begun large-scale landing operations on the northern shores of Viipuri bay in southern Finland in an apparent attempt to establish a bridgehead behind Finnish lines, the Finnish communique said today.

LONDON, July 5.—(P)—American Flying Fortresses completed a shuttle bombing tour of Hitler's Europe today by bombing French rail yards on the last leg of a British-Russia-Italy-Britain circuit while other U. S. heavies assaulted the naval base of Toulon where the French fleet lies scuttled.

ROME, July 5.—(P)—Eighth Army troops, converging from the southwest and south, have driven within five miles of the important communications center of Arezzo on the road to Florence while American units on Italy's west coast have moved up to the outskirts of Rosignano, less than 13 miles airline from Livorno. Allied headquarters announced today.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 5.—(P)—RAF Mosquito bombers, carrying mines for the first time, blocked traffic in Germany's Kiel canal for 10 days in a swift, low-level attack on that "most heavily defended waterway in the world" less than a month before the invasion of France.

STOCKHOLM, July 5.—(P)—The Free Danish press service asserted today that a German munitions ship blew up in Aarhus harbor yesterday causing damage estimated at close to $25,000,000.

First reports from underground sources indicated that at least 80 persons were killed and 300 injured by the blast which damaged possibly 1,000 buildings in Aarhus, the second city of Denmark, and set fire to several other vessels in the harbor.

Three Calls for Fire Departments

The fire companies, on the Fourth of July, answered three alarms, but none were attributed to fireworks. It is the first time, in several years the companies have had as many runs of which one or more were not caused by fireworks.

The first alarm was at 8:01 o'clock in the morning to 910 East Fifth street, where fire started from a burning trash pile caused damage to a fence and a tree.

At 6:31 o'clock they were called to 618 West Tenth street, where fire of undetermined origin had started in a cushion of a 1935 Ford coach owned by Cecil Powell. Slight damage resulted.

A short in a starter wiring on the 1940 Chevrolet car of P. E. Sullivan, caused a slight fire and a run by the fire companies to Fourth street and Washington avenue. Slight damage resulted.

Germans Resist Heavily in all Sectors, Progress Hard for Allies

By Wes Gallagher

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 5.—(P)—Doughboys fought hand-to-hand late today through the streets of La Haye Du Puits, German anchor on their western flank in France after seizing the railway station 300 yards from the heart of that important junction town.

Fierce fighting raged at both ends of the Normandy battlefield as supreme headquarters disclosed that more than 58 French cities, towns, and villages had been liberated in the first month of the invasion.

Besides battering into La Haye Du Puits, Lt.-Gen. Omar N. Bradley's men scored advances of more than two miles along the entire front near the town, six miles inland from the western coast. A field dispatch said the railway station fell shortly after 9 a. m.

The Germans counterattacked with infantry and tanks, throwing in giant Tiger tanks for the first time on the U. S. sector in Normandy in a vain effort to save the town, the dispatch added.

Violent fighting flared also at the eastern end of the front near Caen. Field Marshal Erwin Rommel attacked heavily against the lower tip of the British wedge southwest of Caen, seeking to break through the Allied line, and Canadian troops were forced back in the battle for Carpiquet airfield, due west of Caen.

Close in on La Haye

The Germans held all but the northern hangars of the airfield after counter-attacking with 30 to 40 tanks, a field dispatch said, and the Canadians withdrew a few hundred yards. But the Canadians consolidated their hold on the town of Carpiquet itself, three miles from Caen and one of the fortress positions guarding that bomb-blasted city of 61,000 population.

I'm not losing face.

I guess you've seen pictures of those real ancient cars that are quite a fad with some prominent people. I'm no big shot, but folks envy me, even at that, for keeping this car like an heirloom. Oh, some say that any good motor oil would largely do the trick, and they're welcome to believe it. I simply say this: Keeping my engine OIL-PLATED ever since I switched to Conoco Nth motor oil, has helped me beat the curse of engine acids. I got wise that acids from combustion always try to corrode an engine's inside finish, but OIL-PLATING furnishes special protection. A synthetic in Conoco Nth oil, I've learned, behaves almost like magnetism. This makes the working parts attract OIL-PLATING, and hold on to it. It's fastened as closely as chrome plating to keep metal under cover from acids. That would certainly be a check on corrosion, from the minute you switch to an OIL-PLATED engine. So just get Conoco Nth motor oil.

Audit Report Is Given To City Council

Discussion Held Relative To Place For A City Dump

Members of the City Council, meeting in regular session, Monday night, spent some time discussing the probability of a new dumping ground for the city, preferably outside the city limits. A petition, signed by 24 names, was presented objecting to the dump on Twenty-Second street and Engineer avenue, and asking the Council to declare it a public nuisance. The motion was tabled.

Richard Keenan, chairman of the sanitation committee, stated he had been looking for locations, had been unsuccessful so far as finding one within the city limits, but was now investigating one outside the city limits, which he hoped would develop into one the city could obtain.

Frank Royce, of the fire committee, reported the fireman had made repairs on one of the trucks, replacing a part with a used one they had been able to locate, and saved about one-third the cost of a new part.

Facts From Audit

A. L. Pringle, finance chairman, reported on the audit made by the Cornell Company, stating it contained many interesting facts. He mentioned specifically the report showed that between the period from May 1, 1943 and April 30, 1944, the delinquent taxes, personal, real estate and ad valorem, totalled $28,128.66, some of which had been paid since that time. The Bothwell hospital had made a net profit of $9,979.34, while the City Hospital No. 2 had a deficit of $2,256.52. The bonded indebtedness of the city is $146,000, and there is approximately $23,000 in the Crown Hill cemetery perpetual fund.

A resolution was passed directing the cancellation of about $1900 in city personal taxes, which have been outlawed. Most of the amounts are small, some as low as twenty cents.

Permits to sell intoxicating liquor were issued to: Pete Drenas, 420 1/2 South Osage avenue 3.2 beer; Mrs. Viola Miller, 317 West Pettis street, 3.2 beer; W. B. Risler, 211 South Ohio avenue by the drink.

Mrs. A. W. Haller, city hall stenographer, served as clerk in the absence of the city clerk, E. J. Thomas, who had received word that day his son was missing over Germany.

Club Planned For Picnic

USO Plans 'Block Buster' Party

Tuesday evening's cabaret dance at the USO club was a success and the two hundred present expressed appreciation to those who served so well on the committee headed by Miss Peggy Wagenknecht and Mrs. Betty Burford. The decorations, setting and serving of refreshments lent themselves to the idea of a cabaret dance. Mrs. Mae Moser's orchestra furnished the music for this round dance program.

Next Tuesday's dance will be called a "Block Buster" and out-of-door dancing will be featured, weather permitting, on the space across the street from the USO at the Dixiel service station. The Tuesday night dance committee will meet later this week to complete plans for this novel dance where there will be both square and round dancing.

Four Killed in The Santa Fe Chief Wreck

Streamlined Train Leaves Track Near Flagstaff, Ariz.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., July 5—(AP)—All steel streamlined equipment was a life saver, railroad officials said today, in the wreck of the locomotive and 12 cars of the Santa Fe Chief, one of the west's most luxurious trains.

The fireman and three passengers were killed and more than 30 were injured, three seriously, after the train hurtled from the tracks midnight Monday 20 miles west of here.

There were 158 passengers on the 14-car Pullman train bound for the west coast. Killed were J. S. McLeod of New York City, head of all Metro Goldwyn Mayer film exchanges in the nation; John J. Edwards; Winslow, Ariz., the fireman; Mrs. Ann Bradys, Hammond, Ind., and H. H. Helper, Los Angeles, Calif. Officials said that with old style equipment the losses would have run much higher.

Locomotive Leaves Track
The steam locomotive left the tracks as the streamliner whisked around a curve before a 15-mile straightaway. Two mail cars and a baggage coach catapulted ahead on the left side of the engine.

The first sleeper in the train—fourth car from the locomotive—skidded into the engine tender, causing two of the passenger fatalities and many injuries.

Three other Pullmans swung at right angles to the tracks and compressed accordion fashion against the first sleeper. One of these overturned on its side.

The next four cars left the tracks and stopped in zig-zag positions but remained upright. The last two cars stayed on the tracks.

Traffic resumed over the busy transcontinental double tracked route yesterday afternoon, fourteen hours after the accident.

ships sunk and to 826 the total of enemy planes destroyed since the western Pacific offensive opened June 10. American losses for the same period were listed as 160 planes—and four warships damaged, but none sunk.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said the Fourth of July attack also left an enemy destroyer dead in the water and burning, damaged several small cargo ships and set fire to harbor installations and warehouses.

Carrier Planes Active
Carrier planes opened the operation the day before, blasting Iwo Jima in the Volcano group, shooting down 39 interceptors for certain, probably bagging 16 more and destroying or damaging 24 on the ground. Three raiders were lost.

On the second day, cruisers and destroyers moved in to shell Iwo Jima while rocket-firing planes attacked both it and Haha Jima in the Bonins. In that attack 25 enemy planes were downed and six raiders were lost.

On Saipan, invaded June 14, marine heroes of Tarawa and the Marshalls and infantry veterans of Central Pacific invasions left the worst terrain behind them as they squeezed the Japanese into the northeast corner. More than 7,000 of the enemy have been slain.

Eisenhower Proud of Yank Troops

a GI bedroll and four B1 blankets. Surprised Montgomery

On Sunday Gen. Montgomery was surprised when he left church services in the field to find Eisenhower beside him. A study of the British sector followed, during which the supreme commander highly commended the British advance in the face of seven enemy Panzer divisions.

Eisenhower also expressed his understanding for British troops who were anxious to get moving. He emphasized that their past performances were far from the less and were vital to the campaign and fully appreciated.

Because of the speed maintained by his driver, Sgt. Alex Stout of Opelousa, La., few of the troops got a good look at the supreme commander, but wherever he went their eyes and yells followed him.

Sometimes the Tommies surprised the Americans in the reception given him, but in most cases it was about equal.

The general would lean out of the jeep, wave at astounded and gaping troops and they would fumble between a salute and a wave.

"Did ya see that?" they asked each other. "The old man himself."

But one Negro sergeant topped them all with this crack to a road crew:

"Yeah, that's the general. Now let's get this road fixed before he comes back and tears his hie off."

The visit to Montgomery's headquarters ended with a lecture for the two generals on the new German Panther tank, one of which was captured intact by a crack British armored unit.

WASHINGTON, July 5—Stalin's interview with Professor Oscar Lange of University of Chicago, Polish-American leader, lasted two hours and twenty minutes, during which the strong man of Russia sipped tea and smoked an endless chain of cigarettes. Present at the interview were Foreign Commissar Molotov and Secretary Pavlov of the foreign office.

It is considered significant that Polish Premier Mikolajczyk, during his recent visit in this country, spent considerable time with Professor Lange, who had recently returned from his talk with Stalin. It is believed that the Lange-Mikolajczyk conferences in Chicago, together with those the Polish premier had with President Roosevelt in Washington, have had much to do with the reported favorable trend of Polish-Russian relations recently.

However, Stalin did not talk only about Poland. At one point he was asked about the danger of Anglo-Soviet-American harmony breaking up. His reply was that he was not worried.

"This alliance is not built merely on an agreement between three men," Stalin said. "It is the result of a deep and compelling fundamental community of historical interests. It is assured by the fact that we all need each other. As one of your American statesmen once said, 'If we do not all hang together, we will hang separately.' So I am confident that, despite minor disturbances and occasional irritations, our friendship will continue and will assure peace to the post-war world."

Socialistic Germany Unlikely

Stalin was also asked about the chances of Germany becoming socialistic after the war. He replied that he did not believe that likely.

Foreign Commissar Molotov, however, expressed disagreement, pointing out that 5,000,000 anti-Nazi votes were cast in the last free election before Hitler came into power.

But Stalin argued back: "The cadres (meaning cells) of the rank and file of the German labor movement have been completely destroyed by fascism. The comeback of the German labor movement is a matter of one or two generations. Meanwhile, we can take no chances with Germany."

When the subject of Hitler and the German atrocities came up, Stalin became emotional. He told how the Germans had burned villages, slaughtered children, destroyed everything they saw.

"How can you expect a people who have indulged in such sadistic brutal atrocities to be socialists or communists? They are murderous barbarians. Human beings never could do such ruthless, savage things."

During his conversations, Stalin frequently referred to Lenin, the leader of the Bolshevik revolution.

"I am only following in the path laid down for us by Lenin," he once remarked.

No AMG For Poland

Referring to Polish problems, the main subject in which both Professor Lange and Father Orleanowski were interested, Stalin stated categorically that there would be no AMG for Poland in the wake of Red Army advances.

(Note — AMG or Allied Military Government, is the service largely trained at the University of Virginia, under the U. S. army, to take over occupied areas after the advance of Allied armies.)

Stalin expressed deep distrust of the Polish officers trained by AMG in the United States, England and Cairo to re-establish Polish rule in re-occupied Polish territory. He described these men as bitterly anti-Soviet and almost pro German.

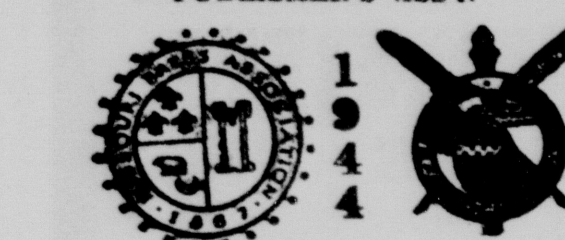

"There will be no AMGOT rule in Poland," Stalin said, calling AMG by the name which was originally used but which was changed when the Allies discovered that "amgot" was the Turkish

Yanks Uncover Jerry's 'Trade Secrets'

word for horse manure and carried an unfortunate connotation.

"The Poles must form their own government," Stalin continued. "The Polish government must emerge from Poland itself."

Assurance of Polish Independence
He was told that many of the Polish people in Russia are now more radical than citizens of the Soviet. He said that this did not surprise him. The political feeling of the Poles, he said, approximated that of the Russians at the time of their revolution.

He said that, if the Polish people wanted to nationalize their industries and introduce substantial agrarian reforms, it would be a good thing. He added, however, that Russia had no intention of telling them what kind of government they should have, or how they should run it.

"We are only interested in the future peace of Europe," Stalin said, "and in not having Poland used as a doormat over which an aggressor nation can walk to assault our country."

In this connection, he made a pledge considered most significant to Polish-American leaders — namely, that the Union of Polish Patriots would not be used to form the basis for a new Polish government. The Union of Polish Patriots is the organization of Poles formed inside Russia and working closely with the Soviet.

Stalin expressed deep distrust of the Polish officers trained by AMG in the United States, England and Cairo to re-establish Polish rule in re-occupied Polish territory. He described these men as bitterly anti-Soviet and almost pro German.

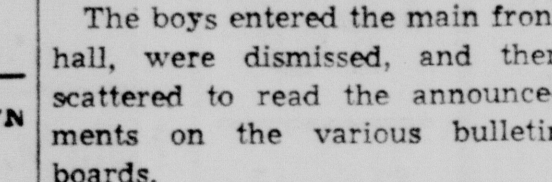

"There will be no AMGOT rule in Poland," Stalin said, calling AMG by the name which was originally used but which was changed when the Allies discovered that "amgot" was the Turkish

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

Threatening clouds during a good portion of the day kept at home many, no doubt, who otherwise would have come to Sedalia to participate in the Fourth of July celebration arranged by the Red Men and Eagles, but even as it was there were thousands at Liberty park during the day and night and the universal verdict was that the entertainment was a success in every particular.

The Second Regiment band furnished the music for the occasion. After the parade to the park Mayor Babcock announced there would be no speech-making and the amusements of the afternoon were entered upon, the first being an exhibition of trick horses ridden by Kirk Chamberlain. The celebration closed at night with a demonstration by the Republican Flambeau club.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 6—(Special) — The Democratic national convention was called to order at 12:04 o'clock today by Chairman Jones of Arkansas, the hall being crowded, after which Secretary Walsh of Iowa, called the roll of states.

The Missouri State Fair board, which is in session today in Secretary J. R. Rippey's office in the Royal Tribe of Joseph building, is transacting a large amount of routine business, preparatory to completing the final arrangements for holding the 1904 fair. The following members of the board are in attendance at the meeting: F. C. Hayman, Houstonia; J. W. Hill, Chillicothe; J. A. Potts, Mexico; A. T. Nelson, Lebanon and H. A. Hand, Taborville.

Capt. A. L. Zollinger of Ottumwa was a visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

Trees Grow in House Walls

Halcyon House in the Georgetown section of Washington, D. C., attracts the eye of nearly every passerby. Built in 1700 by Benjamin Stoddard, first secretary of the Navy, trees grow out of its walls.

Must it happen to him again, like this? Rion wondered. No one would ever know his disappointment. He'd seen those others at the station. The old men standing there, with their wonderful warm welcomes. And the contentment on the travelers' faces... home at last. At that moment he wouldn't have cared what he was... Jew or Mohammedan... if only he had a father to come home to. But who had it been? Lieutenant Brubacher!

"WHAT'S the matter, Schumacker?" It was Wagner, moving toward him from the doorway. "The sight of Suzanne upset you? You don't have to worry. You'll have your chance."

"To hell with Hans Wagner, too," Rion thought bitterly. "Look," Wagner continued. "Captain Hoeffner sent me up. You had architectural engineering, didn't you?"

"Then you can begin to study these plans." He threw a roll of blueprints on the bed. "We can use you. No hurry, of course. May not start for months. Just so everything is in readiness by the time he comes." Wagner moved to the window, looked out. "The Square with all those other houses demolished will make a fine place for the welcoming ceremony, don't you think?"

Rion didn't answer, and Wagner was silent for a moment, too. He was watching a girl. She was moving through the Square, her eyes, a little defiant and curious, on the house of the Third Reich.

"What was that girl like?" Wagner asked. "The one who got off the train with you yesterday?" Rion glanced quickly at the other's face, trying to control the feeling of warm, pleasant confusion which stirred through him. "Terrible," he said.

"Well, I just thought... she looks smart. You might have a talk with her anyway, tell her the changes which are going to be made here. She may want to get in on the ground floor. See you at lunch, Schumacker." He strode away.

Town Talk

A MOBERLY Couple RECENTLY CAME TO SEDALIA TO VISIT AND MADE THE TRIP IN THEIR CAR. THE HUSBAND LEFT FOR HOME FIRST AND WENT ON THE TRAIN. HE DROVE THE CAR TO THE STATION AND FREQUENTLY HIS WIFE REMINDED HIM NOT TO FORGET TO GIVE HER THE KEYS.

AFTER HE HAD GONE SHE WENT BACK TO THE CAR AND A SEARCH FAILED TO DISCLOSE ANY KEYS. SHE WAS WORRIED BECAUSE SHE COULDN'T DRIVE THE CAR AT ALL. SHE CALLED A MECHANIC WHO MAKES KEYS TOLD HIM HER PRECIPITANT AND ASKED IF HE COULD HELP HER.

HE SAID HE COULD BUT BEFORE HE WENT TO WORK HE SUGGESTED SHE LOOK GOOD AND BE SURE SHE DIDN'T HAVE THE KEYS. "OH I'M SURE I DON'T HAVE THEM!" SHE SAID AND TO PROVE IT EMPTIED THE CONTENTS OF HER PURSE. ON THE CAR SEAT AND THERE LOOMING UP AS BIG AS YOU PLEASE ABOUT THE LAST THING OUT OF THE PURSE WERE THE KEYS AND "SILLY" EXPRESSED HER FEELING I THANK YOU.

Another USO Dance at Armory

The military ball last Friday, held in the new Armory building, was such a success that the fellows and girls have asked for this week's dance to be held there, also, the USO dance committee announces. Over five hundred were in attendance, which is nearly double the usual attendance.

The committee feels the location of the Armory building is more suitable for dances than the park, but naturally prefer the fine wooden floor of Convention hall to the cement one at the Armory. The USO personnel expressed appreciation to the local Armory board for the cooperation they had for last week's dance and have asked to have the privilege of holding this week's dance there again, the better to determine the interest in this location of both the service personnel and the USO girls. Miss Juanita Young, chairman of the special arrangements the club will be held on the afternoon of July 18th at the home of John Cranfield.

Sedalian Takes Religious Vows

The triple ceremony of First and Final Professions and Departure took place in the Chapel of the Maryknoll Sisters' Motherhouse at Maryknoll, New York, on June 30. In the presence of several hundred relatives and friends, seventeen Sisters pronounced religious vows and a group of twenty Sisters, tropic-bound, received their mission crucifixes, and bade the traditional farewell to the members of their community.

The Most Rev. William F. O'Shea, M. M., D. D., presided over the ceremony assisted by the Rev. Leo H. Tibeser, M. M., who delivered the address and received the religious vows of the Sisters. Nine Sisters made their first temporary vows for a period of three years, while eight renewed their vows for life.

Bound for mission posts in South and Central America and islands of the Pacific, the departing missionaries include one group of six Sisters who will enter a new field of labor in Nicaragua and a group of four who will staff a new school to be conducted for Negro children in Panama. The others will supplement the personnel of already existing missions.

Included among the sisters was Sister Grace Dolores, Miss Winifred O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell, of West Fourth street.

committee for last week's dance is being asked again to head the committee for this week's dance.

Dancing this week will be from nine to twelve o'clock, with members of Bob Overstreet's orchestra furnishing the music and refreshments being served by the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The theme of the dance will be "Play Days" and the girls are asked to wear suitable play clothes and play shoes, while the decorations will carry out this theme. The committee plans several surprise activities for this dance.

Browns Hold Their Own; Cards Gain

Southworth and Luke Sewell Envy of all Managers Today

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pennants aren't won on the fifth of July and they don't pay off until October but Billy Southworth and Luke Sewell are the envy of every manager in baseball today as the St. Louis Cardinals and Browns sit on top of the world with the traditional Independence day landmark behind them.

Tough Struggle for Browns
The Red Birds are regarded as a shoo-in to the National pennant with a 10½ game lead but the Browns face the toughest sort of a struggle from all sides, currently from the Boston Red Sox who trail by only 1½ games after winning seven of 11 since returning to Fenway park.

Southworth's Cards are hotter than the proverbial cannon cracker with six in a row, the latter pair at the expense of the New York Giants, 6-2 and 9-1. Mort Cooper, who has been overlooked because of a shaky start due to a sore arm, rang the bell for his seventh straight in trimming Harry Feldman and Harry Brecheen boosted his record to 6-1 by downing Rube Fischer in the second game.

Brooklyn's Slide Continues
Brooklyn's toboggan slide continued as the Dodgers slumped to their eighth straight loss by bowing twice to Cincinnati, 6-2 and 2-1 in 10 innings. Rookie Arnie Carter and Harry Gumbert were the winners over Hal Gregg and Ralph Branca but Gee Walker's grand slam homer in the opener was the thrill of the day.

Chicago hopped out of the basement by three percentage points over the Boston Braves by stopping Coleman's crew, 7-1 and 4-2 on neat mound jobs by Les Fleming and Claude Passeau with the help of Dom Dilessandro's slug-ging. Red Barrett and Ben Cardoni were the losers.

Pittsburgh hung to second place by five slim percentage points over the Reds by taking the second game from the Phillies, 4-0 after bowing to Al Gerheuser in the opener, 3-2.

Shutout For Jakucki
The Browns divided two with Philadelphia, winning the early game 4-0 as big Jakucki tossed his third shutout in his last four starts to decision Bobo Newsom. Al Hollingsworth failed in the finale as Luke Hamlin cuffed the leaders, 8-3.

Cleveland beat the New York Yankees' prize rookies, Walt Dubiel and Joe Page, 3-1 and 7-2, with Manager Lou Boudreau showing the way in the field and at bat. Chief Reynolds and Ray Post were the Tribe's winners.

Boston clung to the runnerup spot as Joe Bowman decisioned Detroit's Johnny Corsica, 7-4 and Bobby Doerr batted in five runs after Hal Newhouser had hung up his 12th win at Clem Hausmann's expense 4-3. Washington split with Chicago, the Nats scoring 2-0 behind Johnny Niggeling and the Sox copping the second, 3-2.

Sport Shorts Here And There
FORT RILEY, Kas., July 5—(AP)—Pvt. James N. Cobb, son of the baseball immortal, Ty Cobb, has made the team. He's his detachment's second baseman—in softball.

PEORIA, Ill., July 5—(AP)—Storekeeper Mike Stolarik of the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, was all set to sail around Peoria's Mount Hawley Country club in defense of his Illinois amateur golf title.

Stolarik was entered in the tourney which starts tomorrow but he'll be unable to defend his title. He has just received orders transferring him to another station.

North Carolina is to Set Aside Second Trout Fishing Stream for Women

Fourth fireworks belatedly Friday night when Willie Pep, New York-recognized world featherweight champion, tackled lightweight Willie Joyce of Gary, Ind., in a 10-round mix at Comiskey park.

Promoter Jack Kearns envisions a crowd of 20,000 for the first major outdoor slug-fest of the season here.

By NEA Service
BUSICK, N. C. — Opening of the bass fishing season in western North Carolina has caused a sudden drop in the number of feminine anglers frequenting Neel's Creek — a stream in the Pisgah Game Management area set aside for women only.

It is just as well that the fair ones have taken to the lakes, says refuge supervisor C. N. Mease. They fished the creek pretty hard, he points out.

Success of the Neel's Creek project has been so substantial that Mease is planning to set aside Lost Cove Creek, a tributary, as additional fishing water for women only.

Since Neel's Creek was first reserved for women only, it has grown steadily in popularity, and a lot of trout have been taken out. In one weekend 60 or 70 women checked out legal-size trout. The stream runs through the Mt. Mitchell Game Refuge. Nearby

Cost Of Global War Reaches Huge Figure

Since July 1, 1940
Averages About
$440,500,000 Day

WASHINGTON, July 5.—(P)—Fighting this global war and getting ready for it has cost the nation $199,940,000,000 since July 1, 1940, or about $440,500,000 a day. This was disclosed by the treasury today in a year-end report putting the cost of war activities in round figures during the fiscal year ended June 30 at $39,721,000,000, including $2,682,000,000 laid out by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and subsidiaries.

These outlays and the interest on the war debt, the treasury said, accounted for more than 95 per cent of the "unprecedented" total expenditures—$93,744,000,000. The total was $15,565,000,000 more than in the fiscal year of 1943.

While spending increased, the government's income zoomed. Receipts amounted to $44,149,000,000 or nearly double the $22,282,000,000 taken in during fiscal 1943.

Despite this record-breaking "take", the government was left with a deficit of $49,595,000,000, a reduction of $6,303,000,000 from last year's, but still enough to shove the public debt, including guaranteed obligations, to $202,625,456,521.98 as of June 30.

By comparison, President Roosevelt in a revised budget estimate last July had estimated the year's total expenditures at $104,040,820,000 and the cost of the year's war activities at an even $100,000,000,000.

By Fiscal Years
In round numbers, this is the nation's annual bill for war expenditures, including RFC disbursements, during the fiscal years 1941-44.

1941—$6,655,000,000; 1942—$28,266,000,000; 1943—$75,298,000,000 and 1944—$89,721,000,000.

All of the top war agencies spent more than in the previous year, the army accounting for an increase of $6,985,000,000; the navy $5,650,000,000; the maritime commission $1,036,000,000 and the war shipping administration $817,000,000.

There was a trend among non-war agencies, however, to spend less. For example, the department of agriculture laid out $61,000,000 less than in the preceding year. Income taxes accounted for $26,262,000,000 of the government's income, a jump of $18,561,000,000 over the previous year.

Included in these collections was $8,393,000,000 from withholding taxes and the treasury took occasion to give the pay-as-you-go system a pat on the back. The earlier receipt of taxes, the treasury said, helps the government reduce its interim borrowing—thus saving money.

Interest on the public debt was $2,608,979,805, compared with the previous year's $1,808,160,395.
